The Trees of Life is the signature fundraising event for Kidney Health Alliance of Kentucky (KHAKY) and is now celebrating 33 years of bringing this event to the Lexington community. KHAKY is a 100% local, independent, 501c3 charitable organization serving all of Kentucky. Through fundraising efforts, grants and the generous support of area businesses and individuals, KHAKY has served kidney disease patients and their families, increased awareness and early detection of chronic kidney disease, provided a network for collaboration among renal healthcare providers and promoted organ donation for over 40 years. We hope that you will partner with us in this year's Taste of the Town to make our 31st Trees of Life another great success.
